Command	Linux	Windows
Change Directory	cd	cd
Change current directory to parent directory	cd ..	cd ..
Take you to root directory	cd /	cd /
Take you to user directory	cd ~	cd ~
	cd folder/folder/folder	cd folder/folder/folder
Remove all previous commands and output	clear	clear
Deletes an entire directory of files	deltree	deltree
List all files in a directory	ls	ls
Make a new directory (folder)	mkdir name of directory	mkdir name of directory
Move a file	mv name of file ~/destination	mv name of file ~/destination
Open the folder you're currently in	open .	start .
To open up Sublime	open -a "sublime text"	Assuming your Sublime Text 3 is located in the "C:\Program Files\Sublime Text 3" directory 1. In Git Bash copy paste and run: echo 'alias subl="/C/Program\ Files/Sublime\ Text\ 3/sublime_text.exe"' >> ~/.bashrc 2. Close Git Bash and Open it again. 3. In Git bash type: subl
Open a specific folder	open name of folder	start name of folder
Present working directory	pwd	pwd
Remove a file (make sure you're not in file you want to delete)	rm name of file	rm name of file
Remove a folder (make sure you're not in folder you want to delete)	rm -r name of folder	rm -r name of folder
To pull up most recent command or complete what you're typing	tab key	tab key
Make a new file	touch name of file	echo > name of file
Goes thru your history	up arrow key	up arrow key
To find out which version of something you have	Name of software -version	Name of software --version